STAFF ANALYSIS

§ 36-67-3. Zoning proposal review standards

In any local government which has established a planning department or other similar agency charged with the duty of reviewing zoning proposals, such planning department or other agency shall with respect to each zoning proposal investigate and make a recommendation with respect to each of the matters enumerated in this Code section, as well as carrying out any other duties with which the planning department or agency is charged by the local government. The planning department or other agency shall make a written record of its investigation and recommendations, and this record shall be a public record. The matters with which the planning department or agency shall be required to make such investigation and recommendation shall be:

(1) Whether the zoning proposal will permit a use that is suitable in view of the use and development of adjacent and nearby property.

The proposed use of the land would be suitable for the proposed business, there are enclosed workshops on the property and enough distance from the highway to not cause issues. This should not impact the development of the adjacent properties

(2) Whether the zoning proposal will adversely affect the existing use or usability of adjacent or nearby property.

This proposed business will not adversely affect the existing use or usability of this property or the adjacent and nearby properties.

(3) Whether the property to be affected by the zoning proposal has a reasonable economic use as currently zoned.

The current zoning allows for On Site, Utility trailer sales, manufacturing, and repair with approval of a Special Exception per the Ben Hill County Ordinance table of uses.

(4) Whether the zoning proposal will result in a use which will or could cause an excessive or burdensome use of existing streets, transportation facilities, utilities, or schools;

The proposed use of this property should not cause excessive or burdensome use of the existing infrastructure on the property or surrounding property.

(5) If the local government has an adopted land use plan, whether the zoning proposal is in conformity with the policy and intent of the land use plan;

This land use Special Exception is the adoption of the land use plan to conform with the policy and land use plan.

(6) Whether there are other existing or changing conditions affecting the use and development of the property which give supporting grounds for either approval or disapproval of the zoning proposal.

Staff is not aware of any other existing or changing conditions affecting the use and development of this property which gives supporting grounds for either approval or dismissal of this zoning proposal.
